TRANSFER STUDENT ARRIVAL SCHEDULE
Fall Term 2015

Wednesday, August 26

9:00 am Check-in-Cobb Gallery – Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED

- Bursar & Financial Aid Offices-You will have a chance to meet with representatives from both the Bursar's Office and Financial Aid to complete check-in.
- Campus Safety-For on-campus residential students, you will receive your room key and front door key code. All students will be photographed for their Student Identification Card and will have an opportunity to register motor vehicles, boats, and bicycles.
- Counseling and Health Services-You will discuss required immunizations and health forms that are needed to complete check-in.
- Student & Family Relations- Families will pick-up a welcome packet and register their e-mail address with Assistant Dean of Students for Family Relations Anne Wetmore.

You may move into your residence after completing the check-in process***

9:00 am-5:00 pm
Campus Bookstore-Edmundson Hall
Stop by the Campus Bookstore, located in Edmundson Hall, to buy your books before your first day of class.

11:30 am Lunch, Information Session & Mentor Assignment-Fox Hall – Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED
"Welcome to Eckerd College"
Meet with Dean of Faculty Suzan Harrison, Dean of Students Jim Annarelli, Associate Dean of Faculty Marjorie Sanfilippo, Registrar Amy Apicerno, Collegial Chairs, and staff and students in Fox Hall to learn important information to help you succeed while at Eckerd College. Following the information session, it is mandatory that you meet with your Collegial Chair and schedule an appointment with your mentor.

1:00 pm-2:00 pm
Assistant Dean of Students for Family Relations Meet & Greet
Family members are invited to join Assistant Dean of Students for Family Relations Anne Wetmore in the Coffee House located in Brown Hall for some afternoon refreshments. Anne will be available to answer questions or to direct families to offices on campus such as the Health and Counseling Center, Financial Aid, Housing, Registrar, and the Bursar.

1:00 pm-2:00pm
International Students-Mandatory
International students need to stop by the Office of Multicultural Affairs, located in Fox Hall adjacent to the patio, to meet with Mari Newbold, Associate Dean for Diversity Initiatives.

9:00pm
Late Night Breakfast
Stop by Café Bon Appétit to fill up on a complimentary breakfast prepared by various faculty and staff of Eckerd.

* Please note: Families are invited to attend all first-day programs.

Thursday, August 27

9:00am-3:00pm Scheduled Meetings with Mentors (assigned the previous day) - Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED
Meet your mentor and register for your Fall courses. Following the meeting, there will be a representative from ITS in the library computer lab to assist you with online registration if you have problems or questions. In addition, the Registrar's Office, located in Upham, will be open until 5:00pm.

9:00am-10:30am -GMSL-137 Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED for all students majoring in this field.
General Information Session-Marine Science Majors (mentor meetings to follow).

9:00 am-5:00 pm
Campus Bookstore-Edmundson Hall
Stop by the Campus Bookstore, located in Edmundson Hall, to buy your books before your first day of class.

3:30pm-4:30pm
Introduction to Campus Life- President's Dining Room, Main Cafeteria -Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED
There are over 100 student events and programs available to students each week at Eckerd College. You will have the opportunity to meet the Campus Activities staff, Student Government Officers, and discover ways to become involved with campus events, student clubs, ECOS leadership, campus recreation, student employment, and more.

4:30pm- 6:00pm
Costume Day at the Waterfront
Show in a costume, sign out a kayak or paddleboard and get a raffle ticket to the Fins Up Beach Party Prize.

7:00pm
Men's Varsity Soccer vs. Flagler College
Come out and support the Tritons on North Field

Friday, August 28

9am-10am
Library Orientation-Armacost Library- Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED
You'll meet Eckerd's friendly and helpful librarians and discover what services and research tools the library has to offer.

10:30am-11:30am-
Healthy Expectations-Triton Room, Main Cafeteria- Mandatory-ATTENDANCE REQUIRED
Being part of a community of 1,800 college students presents some unique challenges. Staff will talk with you about finding your place in this community, adjusting to life in the residence halls, staying healthy while in college, making responsible choices about alcohol and other drugs, and knowing how and when to get help for yourself or a friend. You will also become familiar with the various health resources available to you.

8:00pm
Karaoke-Tritons Pub
This fun event is hosted by the Afro-American Society and promises to be a great time. Prizes will be awarded to the best solo and group performance.

10:00pm
Movie Night Downtown St. Petersburg
Stop by the Office of Campus Activities to pick-up your complementary ticket to see a movie in downtown St. Petersburg. Transportation will be leaving from the mailboxes at 9:30pm; directions will be provided for anyone who carpools.

Saturday, August 29

12:00pm-4:00pm
Fins Up Beach Party @ the Waterfront
Do you like food, music, waterslides, crazy games, chillin' on rafts with your friends? Then come to down to fill up and cool off at the Waterfront for this final Waterfront Autumn Tem event.