

REFLECTIVE STATEMENT

As a capstone to your Service Learning Project, you will write a Reflective Statement of approximately five pages in length. This statement will consist of your reflections on the experience of creating and executing your Service Learning Project in the community.

QUESTIONS YOU MIGHT WISH TO ADDRESS ARE:

Personal Meaning And Success:

1. Has the service learning project helped you discover meaning or purpose? If so, how?
2. What knowledge/skills have you learned from this project and how might this learning help you in the future?
3. Do you think you were successful in this service learning project? Please elaborate on your areas of success or non-success.

Team Success:

4. How would you characterize the effectiveness of your team work?
5. How would you evaluate each team member's contribution?
6. How well was the project represented by your team at the Festival of Hope?

Personal Learning:

7. What have you learned about yourself? (Your abilities, strengths/weaknesses, personality)
8. What are your personal qualities that make you a good participant in this project?
9. Were your values challenged or changed in any way by engaging in this project?

Civic, Social Responsibility:

10. Has participating in service learning enhanced your sense of civic responsibility and your desire to serve in the community and fellow citizens? Do you plan to perform community service in the future?
11. What have you learned about ethics and social responsibility from this project?
12. What memories/experiences will you take with you from participation in this service learning project?
