

REGATTA HIGHLIGHTS:

Racing was in two divisions of FJ's and one division of Tech Dinghies. The regatta was sailed in the Charles River Basin out of the MIT Sailing Pavilion. Eighteen teams were in attendance. Judges – Hatch Brown, Caroline McNally, and Tom Robinson. Regatta chairs – Fran Charles, Brad Churchill, and Stan Schreyer. Saturday: Seven races were held in each division. Six of these races were held in 3- 5 knot Northerly winds, which were extremely shifty. The final race of the day was held in a light Easterly breeze. Two protests were filed. Sunday: Three races were held in each division. All races were sailed in light and variable Northwest winds 0 – 4 knots. Racing was challenging as the breeze was very shifty. Several races were abandoned due to dying breeze or big shifts. No protests were filed. Congratulations to the first place Yale Bulldogs.
